OUR COUNTRYMEN IN CHAINS.

Our fellow countrymen in chains-- Slaves--crouching on the very

By every shrine of patriot chains, Slaves in a land of light and plains Where rolled the storm of Freedom's blood, From Moultrie's wall and Jasper's well.

A groan from Eutaw's haunted wood-- A wail where Camden's martyrs fell--