SONG OF THE FREE.

Parodied by G. W. C.

From valley and mountain, from hill-top and glen, What sounds through the air are rebounding! And echo is sending the sounds back again, And loud through the air they are sounding; And if you ask what those joy - ous strains? 'Tis the 'Tis the songs of bond-men now burst-ing their chains.